BROOKLYN.

Called for Police in Vain.

Robbery and Assault on a Public Street in Brooklyn.

Sixteen-year-old Frederick Brymer, of 265 Johnson avenue, is suffering from injuries inflicted by a young man, who, when discovered trying to cheat the boy, knocked him down and beat him. The doctors think he is injured internally. The swindler escaped, and the police are looking for him. Young Brymer is employed in Charles F. Held's meat market, 614 Clason avenue. Early last evening a man described as about forty-five years old, tall and dark, with a small black mustache, called at the store and asked Mr. Held who was alone, to send two pounds of steak to 965 Dean street, together with change for a $5 bill. Mr. Held's money was given to the boy. He met the man in front of the house. The fellow took the money, and after counting it over, placed it in his pocket and handed the boy a $10 Confederate note. Brymer detected the fraud and demanded the return of his money. The man started on a run. This youngster followed him, calling for the police. He overtook the fugitive after a short chase and grabbed him by the coat. The man struck the boy in the face, knocking him down. Stopping, he punched him in the face and dealt him several vicious kicks in the ribs and abdomen. Brymer was screaming for the police, but there was no officer in sight.

Juror Lost in the Shuttle.

Ex-Judge Morris made a motion in the City Court, Brooklyn, this morning, to set aside a verdict for $5,000 in a damage suit, because Juror Henry Zehner got lost in the shuttle yesterday. Robert H. Carr, who had been selected for $25,000 damages for personal injuries. When the jury retired Zehner was absent. He was found in the corridor looking for his fellow jurors. Judge Osborne ordered briefs to be presented.

MANY CHILDREN.

As well as thousands of grown people, have been cured of scrofula, and other blood diseases, by taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Every disease that can be reached through the blood, yields to its purifying qualities. Eczema, Tetter, Boils, Carbuncles, and the worst Scrofulous Sores and Swellings are permanently cured. Mrs. F. H. HARRIS, of Waukegan, Ill., writes: "About four years ago my daughter, who was afflicted with Eczema in a disfiguring form, tried several medicines to no purpose. I told her she was cured, but they did no good. I told her I would write you, and after a few months' use of your medicine she was cured."

Mrs. J. H. HARRIS, a widow living near Waukegan, Ill., a few years ago, was in a deplorable state of health, and used your medicine with entire success. A

BROOKLYN'S TURN NEXT.

Was a Dangerous Cuss.

Frederick Cuss, of Brooklyn avenue and Bergen street, Brooklyn, was held for trial in the Gates Avenue Court this morning on charges of drunkenness, assault and criminal carelessness. He is a fireman of a row of fashionable flats on Jefferson and Throop avenues. Yesterday he got drunk and was ordered out of the cellar by engineer Frederick Cuss. West called away. When he returned Cuss, with drunken zeal, was piling coal on the fire, and the steam engine was at a dangerous pressure. West called Cuss and attempted to open the supply valve. Cuss struck West over the head with a short iron handspike. West managed to open the safety valve. Cuss was sent to jail for drunkenness. Trial on the other charges was adjourned until he comes out of prison.

Crime to Give Matches.

In the suit brought by Attorney-General J. R. Stockton, of the United States, to annul the charter of the American Tobacco Trust Company, evidence was heard today in the Federal life insurance Company Building. Henry Berhart, of Brooklyn, swore he was cut off on cigarettes, because he gave matches with each package sold. He sold $50,000 cigarettes, but could get no return. He observed the Trust scheme as it stood, and declared, with great emphasis, that he was not a party to it, and his only crime was that of giving matches with each package of cigarettes. The case of the Trust was a "hot" one on schedule prices.

WILL REACH $25,000.

Amount Embellished by the Cashier of the Indian Head Bank.

NASHUA, N. H., Dec. 13.—The rumored defalcation of Frank A. McKean, cashier of the Indian Head National Bank here, was confirmed to-day by the bank officials. The full amount of the embezzlement is not yet known, as McKean has so many varied interests that the directors and Bank Examiner Dore, who are now working on the books, state that it will be several days before a correct return can be made. It is thought, however, that the amount will exceed $25,000. It is believed that McKean has committed suicide. He has been twice Mayor of Nashua, and in 1878 was the Democratic candidate for Governor.

"Bon Voyage" to Mr. Dempsey.

A dinner was tendered to William J. Dempsey last evening by his comrades the waiters of the Evening News, and by the proprietors of "The Evening World." Mr. Dempsey will sail on the Campania for Europe on Saturday. The banquet was spread in Junker's Cafe on North William street. Numerous toasts were drunk after a splendid menu had been discussed, and a delightful and original entertainment of songs and witticisms made the assembled guests forget that time had sped into "morning paper hours" before the final "adieu" had been spoken.

Victims Looking for Knapp.

A dozen clerks, collectors and victims of Edward R. Knapp, President and manager of the Grocers and Butchers' Protective Association, formed a dejected group at the offices of the concern, at 114 Nassau street, to-day, anxious for tidings of Knapp. Their claims against Knapp aggregate, it is said, $1,500, and there is also an alleged shortage in his accounts of from $1,000 to $1,500. He has not been seen since Sunday, when he disappeared from his home in Brooklyn.

New Publications.

BARNES'S POPULAR U. S. HISTORY, Illustrated, one volume, 724 pages. Price $3.50.

This popular history of our country begins with the arrival of Columbus and ends with the second session of the Cleveland to the Presidency, taking in the Columbus Celebration. It presents the events of American life and development in an entertaining manner that, although condensed, it leads those who possess it to value it above most of the books in their library. Mr. John Ripley says: "It has the rare merit of being readable."

The late Major-General Henry W. Henshaw said: "I have read it with great interest." And others who have read it say that the interest is sustained throughout to such a degree that when the children begin the book they do not drop it until it has been finished. Any history that so enthralles its readers is invaluable. BARNES'S POPULAR HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES may be said to be such a book, and we do not hesitate to recommend it universally as one of the best Christmas presents that can be devised.

Call and examine this beautiful book at the Publishers, A. B. BARNES & CO., 54 East 10th St. (Near Broadway).
